ADOLPH DE LEEUW HELD UNDER THE PENAL LAW

Accused of Offering for Sale Contents of Documents Bearing German Seal.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A man giving the name of Adolph De Leeuw, thirty-four years old, a native of Holland, was arrested last night by Capt. Tunney, head of the "bomb squad" of the New York police, charged with revealing the contents of government documents and offering them for sale in violation of the penal law.

De Leeuw is accused of offering to reveal to Capt. Guy Gaunt, naval attaché of the British embassy, the contents of seven letters, four of which bore the seal of the imperial German embassy at Washington.

Pleads Financial Embarrassment.

Capt. Hunney alleges that De Leeuw, whose arrest was caused by Capt. Gaunt, confessed he offered the letters for sale because of financial embarrassment.

De Leeuw, Capt. Gaunt charged, called on him last week and offered permission to photograph the letters upon payment of $200. Capt. Tunney said De Leeuw's arrest followed his submission of a similar proposal to two detectives introduced to De Leeuw as British secret service agents.

De Leeuw told the police he was in partnership with Felix Malitz in the cotton exporting business. He said he had been deceived in letters were entrusted to him by Malitz for delivery to a man who was to sail for Holland. From Holland, De Leeuw claimed, according to the police, the papers were to have been smuggled into Germany.

Bear German Embassy Seal.

The letters were in code, the police say, and bore the official seal of the German embassy. Two were addressed, it was asserted to Herr K. Gallenbeck, Wilhelmstrasse, 71, Berlin. Two to Mrs. Heine Heyman, Gottenberg, Sweden, and the others to Herr Direktor Lubbert, Behrenstrasse, 21, Berlin; Frau Ida Albert Maximilian Koran, Frohmann, Berlin, and Julius Pintsch, A. G., 71-73 Andreassstrasse, Berlin.

NEW TEACHERS ADDED FOR SUMMER COURSE

Final Arrangements Made for Opening of School for Pedagogues at Maryland State College.

SPECIAL Correspondence of The Star. COLLEGE PARK, Md., May 25.—Final arrangements have been made at the Maryland State College of Agriculture for the opening of the third annual session of the summer school for teachers. The session opens June 21 and continues for six weeks, ending July 28. Registration is proceeding rapidly, with teachers enrolled from practically every county in the state. It is anticipated the total enrollment will considerably exceed that of 1915, which was 142.

The course as announced this year will follow out the scheme inaugurated in 1915, except that several new subjects are added. All of the teachers' courses have been regrouped and graded, so that the students may be able to do work that will enable them to qualify for one of the several grades of certificates provided by the new educational bill.

Among new teachers that have been engaged for the summer work are Dr. Edward Webb, principal of Frothingburg Normal School; Miss Annie M. Grace, supervisor in Baltimore county; Miss E. V. Krieg, supervisor in Frederick county; Miss E. S. Jacobs, supervisor of domestic science, Washington; Miss Mary G. Ingersoll, professor of costume design, Corcoran Technical Schools, Pittsburgh; Dr. Martha Layon, Washington; C. J. Pearson, university of California; Louis Burket, supervisor of playgrounds, Washington, and specialists from the United States Department of Agriculture and bureau of education.

ORDERS COURT-MARTIAL FOR TEXAS MILITIAMEN

Secretary Baker Directs Trial of 116 National Guardsmen for Ignoring Call to Duty.

Secretary Baker today issued an order convening a general court-martial at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., for the trial of 116 members of the Texas National Guard on the general charge of failing to present themselves for "muster in" under the President's recent call on the Texas militia for duty along the Mexican border. The precise charge against these men will be tried by a court-martial under the President's recent call on the Texas militia for duty along the Mexican border. To Lecture on Trial of Christ.
Representative Walter M. Chandler of the nineteenth New York district is to deliver a lecture on "The Trial of Jesus From a Lawyer's Standpoint" in the Church of the Covenant Sunday evening. Vice President Marshall will introduce the speaker. Mr. Chandler's lecture, it is said, will take up both the Hebrew and Roman trial of Jesus. The lecture is one of a series of talks by public men being given under the auspices of the Men's Society of the church.

Five-Mile Hike Sunday.
A five-mile hike from Barefoot and back to Barefoot is to be taken Sunday by the wanderlusts under the leadership of W. B. Bands. The party will leave by special automobile service to Barefoot beginning at 1:30 from the south side of Aqueduct bridge. W. Palmer Hall and G. A. Gambs are to have charge of a trip Tuesday to Cuppet's house on the Maryland side of the Potomac. The hikers will get in about seven or eight miles of walking. Reservations are open for four or five additional parties for the three-day hike, which starts tomorrow from Union station at 2 o'clock.

Literacy Test Loses in Debate.
That immigration to the United States should not be restricted by a literacy test was the decision reached at the annual public debate of the Daniel Webster Club at Business High School this morning. The affirmative team was composed of Robert T. Miller and Samuel E. Moore and the negative and winning team consisted of William M. Mazon and C. Albert Parker. Prof. D. A. Edwards, William E. Fowler and Charles C. Lancaster were the judges. William C. La Clair, graduate vice president of the club, presided.

MISS RAMSAY IN FINALS.

Boston's Woman Golf Champion Defeats Miss Fanny C. Osgood.

BOSTON, May 26.—Miss Vera Ramsay, last year's champion of the Women's Golf Association of Boston, won her way into the finals again yesterday by beating Miss Fanny C. Osgood of the Country Club, 2 and 1. Her opponent in the finals today will be Miss Eleanor Allen of Oakley, who defeated Miss Harriot S. Curtis of the Country Club, 1 up in nineteen holes yesterday afternoon.

Before Miss Ramsay had started play against Miss Osgood it was asserted that in her earlier matches her caddy was a professional. There is, however, apparently no rule regarding amateurs carrying clubs in a tournament, but it was pointed out that a "professional" was not entitled to act as Miss Ramsay's adviser. Miss Ramsay at first declined to play, and offered to consent to continue, and there seems no doubt that the same caddy will be Miss Ramsay's adviser in the final match today.

Miss Allen's victory over Miss Curtis was a surprise, last year's runner-up being the favorite for the match. Miss Curtis and Miss Ramsay met in the final round of this tournament last year and Miss Curtis was defeated decisively.

Finals in the first, second and third events were played yesterday. The winners were Miss E. S. Porter of Concord, Miss G. Smith of Brae Burne and Miss M. Young of Wollaston.

MRS. BARLOW IS DEFEATED.

Mrs. Munson Puts Out Title Holder in Philadelphia Golf.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The unexpected happened on the links of the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club yesterday, when Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow of the Merion Cricket Club, present title holder, was beaten in the semi-final round of the annual tournament for the 1916 woman's individual golf championship of Philadelphia by Mrs. George S. Munson, also of Merion.

The match ended on the sixteenth green, when Mrs. Barlow dubbed her drive and missed up her first approach shot. Mrs. Munson's drive landed on the edge of the green, but although Mrs. Barlow made a gallant effort to pull the match out of the fire, Mrs.

Munson helping a bit by topping her approach, the odds were too great, and the former champion was forced to accept defeat, 2 up and 2 to play.

By an odd coincidence, Miss Mildred Caverly of the Philadelphia Cricket Club won the other semi-final match from her clubmate, Miss Ethel Campbell, on the same green and by the same score. She meets Mrs. Munson in the final match for the title today.

Mrs. Munson defeated Mrs. Barlow by superior steadiness. The title holder was erratic from the start, and Mrs. Munson, after losing the first hole, followed the second in sixes, then won the next three in rapid succession and took the lead, never to be headed again.

FIREMAN KILLED BY ENGINE.

Frank H. Barnes Run Over in Terminal Railroad Yard.

Frank H. Barnes, twenty-eight years old, a railroad fireman in the employ of the Washington Terminal Company, last night about 9:30 o'clock was run over by an engine in the company's yard, near L street, and killed. The fireman was on his way to his engine and was crossing track 36 when an engine backing from the station to the roundhouse killed him.

Barnes was when found by Conductor E. H. Day. His body was taken to his late home, at 509 E street northeast, where he resided with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Barnes. Coroner Nevitt arranged to hold an inquest at the morgue late today.

Orator for Memorial Exercises.

Col. Samuel R. Stratton, president of the Pennsylvania Society of Washington, D. C., and past post commander of the G. A. R. here, has been selected by the ladies of the Grand Chapter of the G. A. R. to be the orator of the day at the memorial exercises to be held by that organization at the Grant statue in the rotunda in the Capitol Sunday at 3 p. m. An elaborate and extensive program has been prepared.
